Jack Henry Acquires Goldleaf Financial Solutions

FT Partners Advises on $60,500,000 Acquisition of Goldleaf Financial Solutions

Transaction Overview and Rationale

Overview of Transaction

- On August 17, 2009 Goldleaf Financial Solutions (NASDAQ: GFSI) announced its sale to Jack Henry & Associates (NASDAQ: JKHY) for approximately $60.5 mm in cash
 - $19.1 mm in equity plus assumption of approximately $41.4 mm of debt
 - Jack Henry's cash offer of $0.98 per share of Goldleaf represents a 40% premium over the closing share price on August 14th
 - Represents 0.8x 2010 revenue and 4.3x 2010 EBITDA⁽¹⁾
- Jack Henry also anticipates significant annual cost synergies from the combination of the two companies
- Jack Henry provides integrated technology solutions and data processing services to financial institutions including commercial banks and credit unions
- Goldleaf offers integrated technology and payment processing solutions for community banks and financial institutions; Goldleaf will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Jack Henry
- The transaction closed on October 1st

Significance of Transaction

- The two companies have complementary clients, technology, services and business models that will allow them to deliver more comprehensive product and service offerings
- The acquisition allows Jack Henry to expand its current payment processing platform to address the growing remote deposit capture services market with Goldleaf's industry leading solution
- Goldleaf represents Jack Henry's 17th acquisition since 2003

FT Partners' Role

- FT Partners served as exclusive strategic and financial advisor to Jack Henry and its Board of Directors

Acquisition of Goldleaf will allow Jack Henry to leverage more comprehensive product and service offerings to the market and strengthen its overall competitive position
